"That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us."

Aceldama #8

1967AT, 1967AY

7 December 1968

Aceldama is a journal of postal Diplomacy. It is edited and published by John McCallum, Ralston, Alberta, Canada. The subscription price is one dollar.

Aceldama would like to take this opportunity of wishing all its players, all editors to whom it goes in trade for their publications, and its one solitary cash subscriber, A Very Merry Christmas, and a Peaceful and Prosperous New Year.

Game 1967AT, Arma-7:

RUSSIAN ARMIES GROW

1906 Fall retreat:

Russia (Kinney): No retreat received. Army formerly in Bulgaria is annihilated.

1906 Builds and removals:

Russia (Kinney): Build army St. Petersburg. Build army Moscow.
Build army Warsaw.

Germany (Faus): Build army Munich.

Turkey (Reinsel): Remove fleet Albania. Remove fleet Greece. Remove fleet Aegean Sea.

England (Tzudiker): No removal order received. Gamesmaster removes fleet English Channel.

The previously announced deadline for Spring moves, 17 December, falls in the period of the most congested Christmas mails. I think it better to set it back to the date of the deadline of the other game, namely, Thursday, 26th of December. Many players have already submitted Spring moves. If they wish to change them they may, of course, do so.

Players should note that Roland Tzudiker, playing England in this game now has address 897 Carr St., Denver, Colorado, 80215.

Jack Greene, Jr., playing France, announces that from December 16th to January 17th, he will be at his home address, 670 Darrell Road, Millsborough, Calif., 94010.

Press Release

Berlin. The Bismark sent the following message to Germany's brilliant ally, the Czar of Russia: "The long awaited peace on this continent is fast growing near - with the fast collapse of the barbarian Turks, and the German conquest of the homeland of those braggard French. It has been a pleasure to have been your ally throughout this conquest.

It should also be of extreme interest to those who talk so much of communications, when they realize that Russia and Germany have made no plans together other than Sweden and Denmark, since 1902!"

And to the Austrians and French: "See what happens when you trust the Italians (Fall 1901)."

Press Releases

Byzantium, 23 Sept. Her Holiness, Pope Joan II, Empress of the Greeks and Romans, today commented to reporters on the scurrilous and scabrous conduct of the former King of Italy. Lorenzo the Yellow and his equally jaundice-bellied Premier, Alessandro Presibaldi. "They come from long lines of quitters. Desertion under fire is one of Lorenzo's chief traits." Her Holiness' upper lip curled at the mere mention of the well-known Poltroon of Rome. "Cowardice is the best that can be expected of Lorenzo, We suppose, but such base pusillanimity is unknown to the members of Our house. The Borgias never turn runagate; it is a pity that we should have been exiled from Our native Italy by one who cannot say 'Boo' to a goose!"

Byzantium, 24 Sept. Her Holiness today sent her pascal greetings to Carlo, the new King of Italy, together with expressions of hope that a new era of hope for mankind against the Anglo-German juggernaut. As a sign of good faith, the interdict laid against Italy was lifted. Said Her Holiness, "The people of Italy may now be born, be married, and die anywhere they want, and not just on church porches."

Jerusalem, 3 Oct. The search for Lawrence Pasha, still running away, and still disguised as a sick camel, goes on and on. Hundreds of sick camels have been turning themselves in and claiming they are Lawrence Pasha, but none are sick enough to be very convincing. One sick camel did turn out to be Secret Agent O-O-Hate. He really was sick, too. He had met a real sick camel on the road to Damascus and, thinking he was merely a disguised tripe dealer, had offered to sell him a special select collection of Captain Midnight Secret Code Rings. The beast promptly ate these relics of a bygone (thank goodness!) era, and O-O-Hate became very, very upset. His anguished cries may still be heard at Jezebel Memorial Hospital here, "Ha! Ha! OK!?!?!?"

It will be noted that the deadline for both games has been set for December 26th. It is not yet known whether there will be mail delivery on that date or not. If not, the deadline will, if necessary, be set back one day. With the slow deliveries prevailing during the Christmas season all players are advised to allow even more time than normal for their moves.
